When we receive your application, we make sure that it is complete and that all the documents you must provide are included. We will write to you as soon as possible if your application is complete. If we are missing information or documents, we will contact you, by mail, to let you know what information we need. You will have thirty (30) days to provide this information / documentation or your application will be cancelled.

How much can I expect to pay?

Basically, geared-to-income rent is based on 30% of your gross monthly household income from all sources (before taxes and deductions). If your only source of income is Ontario Works or Ontario Disability Support Program, the charge would be based on a social assistance housing charge scale. Additional charges may apply depending on the project. When your housing charge is calculated, all assets of the household are also taken into consideration. This excludes units funded under the County of Wellington’s Rent Support Programme. (See page 5 for details)

It is important that you keep your application file up to date. You must notify the County of Wellington, Housing Services about any changes to any of the information you have given us in this application form. You must do this within thirty (30) days of the change occurring, for example:

How are people chosen for housing?

The system for selecting households is based primarily on date of application. Special Priority may be given to your application if you are living with someone who threatens your safety or the safety of other household members. As of April 1st, 2008 the County of Wellington no longer has an Urgent Priority status. However, individuals who meet the criteria under the Local Priority category will be considered on an individual basis (see questions on page two (2) of the application). If you believe you qualify for Special Priority please read the information on page 6 of this INFORMATION PACKAGE.

Do I get to pick the size of unit I want?

You can indicate the size of unit (number of bedrooms) you want to live in. Your choice must fall within a range of unit sizes determined by your household size. The local Occupancy Standards prescribe the following:

Largest Unit a household is eligible for:

- One bedroom for spouses; and

Can a Housing Provider turn me down?

If a housing provider decides not to offer you a unit, you will be told in writing about the reasons for the refusal. You may appeal this decision by requesting a review.

A housing provider may refuse to offer housing to an applicant if:

- The housing provider has a mandate under section 76 of the Act and offering the unit to the household would be contrary to that mandate;
- The housing provider has reasonable grounds to believe, based on the household's rental history, that the household may fail to fulfill its obligations to pay rent for the unit in the amount and at the times the rent is due;
- The housing provider is a non-profit housing co-operative and the household does not agree to accept its responsibilities as a member of the housing provider or the housing provider has reasonable grounds to believe that the household will not accept or will be unable to accept those responsibilities;
- The unit is one in which individuals will reside in a shared living situation and the housing provider has reasonable grounds to believe that it is unreasonable for the household to reside in the shared accommodation.
- The level of supported services that are provided in respect of the unit is significantly greater or significantly less than the level of support services required by the household.

Note: If an applicant owes money for arrears or damages to a housing provider, he/she is not eligible to be placed on the geared-to-income waiting list and therefore would not be considered when a housing provider has a vacancy. An exception may be made if the applicant is actively following a repayment plan.

If I do not have any income, am I eligible for geared-to-income housing?

After you become a tenant, you may be required to pursue income from one or more of the following sources:

- Ontario Works
- Employment Insurance
- Support (under the Divorce Act, the Family Law Act or Inter Jurisdictional Support Orders Act, 2002)
- Old Age Security, Guaranteed Income Supplement, Guaranteed Annual Income Supplement
- Sponsorship payments (under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act)

Can I decide after I move in that I want to move to a housing unit managed by a different housing provider?

Yes, but you must re-apply to the County of Wellington Centralized Waiting List to start the process.

What is the Rent Support Programme?

The County of Wellington Rent Support Programme is designed to help address rental affordability for households. The Rent Support Programme consists of two different programme components designed to address rental affordability. The Housing Allowance component is for clients requiring less rental support and the Rent Supplement component is for clients requiring more rental support. Please contact the County of Wellington, Housing Services office (519.837.5492 or 1.800.663.0750) to get more specific programme information.

What is Co-operative Housing?

Non-profit co-operative housing is jointly owned and managed by the members who live in the co-op. A co-op is not operated for profit and no one can buy or sell their unit. Each co-op elects a board of directors from its membership. Co-op members are required to participate at various levels in the decision making process. Co-op members work together on a voluntary basis to share the responsibility of working to keep their housing community strong and vibrant. Each co-op has a membership committee that is responsible for the selection of new members. Applicants for co-op housing must take part in the co-op's interview process in order to be considered for membership.

What is Affordable Housing?

Affordable housing units are not rent-geared-to-income. Rent is set at 80% of average market rent for that area.

What about Market Housing?

Many housing providers have units that are available at the market rate (similar to what you would pay a landlord in the private sector.) If you are interested in applying for a market unit, you should contact the housing provider directly.
