

The seal of the Corporation of the County of Wellington is circular. It features a central shield with a blue field containing a white cross and four white squares. Above the shield is a crest showing a knight on horseback. The shield is surrounded by a wreath. The text "The Corporation of the County of Wellington" is written in a circular border around the central emblem.